

Ireland Good Wind and Solar Storage Company

Overview

Who is wind energy Ireland?

Wind Energy Ireland is committed to promoting the use of wind energy in Ireland and beyond as an economically viable and environmentally sound alternative to fossil fuels. The company is a leading developer of renewable energy projects, including wind energy, with over 30 years of experience.

Is Statkraft Ireland a growth market for wind & solar power?

Since entering the market in 2018, Statkraft Ireland has more than tripled its workforce and tripled its development portfolio. It is one of the selected growth markets for wind and solar power in Statkraft, given the country's significant renewable energy resources, particularly in terms of wind energy.

How do wind and solar developers price in lost energy?

As part of wind and solar development, developers need to price in lost energy through market dispatch down (system-wide curtailment and local constraints), which drives up auction bids.
